

A Closer Look at the Beaded Fabric Hoop Project

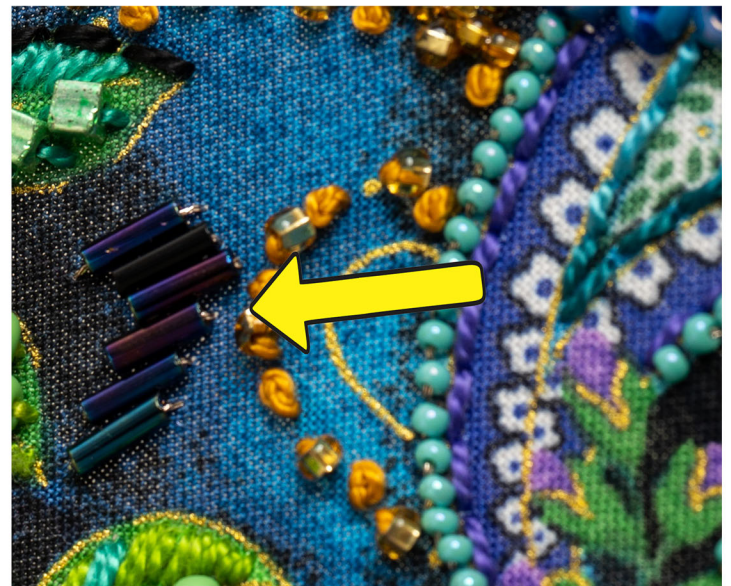

Beads can be sewn in straight lines or in curves to match the design on the fabric.

Depending on how you sew, beads can sit facing up or lay on their side.

Embroidery thread next to beads adds to the design with extra color and texture.

The addition of bugle beads allows you to add straight lines and fill an area quickly.